TERMINAL DISCLAIMER

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.321(b)(1)(iv) and other parts of Section 1.321, the terminal part of any patent granted on the above-identified application No. 10/540,853 which would extend beyond the full statutory expiration date of any patent issuing from application No. 10/540,851, is hereby disclaimed by the common assignee, TS TECH CO., LTD., of Saitama-ken, Japan, the owner of the entire right, title and interest in the present application and said application No. 10/540,851; and it is hereby agreed that any patent so granted on the above-identified application No. 10/540,853 shall be enforceable only for and during such period that the legal title to said patent shall be the same as the legal title to any patent issuing from application No. 10/540,851, this agreement to run with any patent granted on the above-identified application No. 10/540,853 and to be binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

No disclaimer of any terminal part of any patent granted on the above-identified application No. 10/540,853 prior to the expiration date of the full statutory term of any patent issuing from application No. 10/540,851, is made in the event that the patent issuing from application No. 10/540,851 later expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee, is held unenforceable, is found invalid, statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 C.F.R. §1.321, has all claims canceled by reexamination certificate, or is otherwise terminated prior to expiration of its full statutory term, whereby the present terminal disclaimer is effective only for the separation of legal title as stated above. The "full statutory term" of the patent issuing from application No. 10/540,851 is the maximum granted term thereof, as extended by law at any time, and this terminal disclaimer is being made without waiver of the rights of applicant or the assignee to seek an extension of the patent granted on the instant application in accordance with law, including but not limited to the right to an extension under 35 U.S.C. §156 [see 37 C.F.R. §1.775(a)].

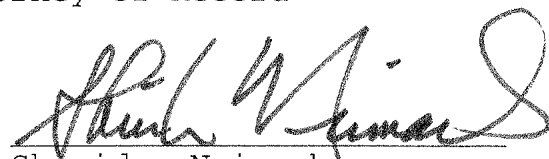

The intended scope of the present terminal disclaimer as set forth above and the non-alienation agreement above are intended to be the minimum required by law, and this document is to be considered to effectuate said intent. No admission is made that any claims of the present application are obvious over any prior patent.

In re Appln. No. 10/540,853

The statutory disclaimer fee of $130.00 for a large entity per 37 C.F.R. §1.20(d) is attached.
